

Rail Bhavan, New Delhi
18th March 1975

Dear Kamla,

The meetings at the Railway Board end on Friday and I will take the Frontier Mail back on Saturday. Delhi is cold in the mornings and very dusty.

My senior officer hinted that my name is on the list for Head Clerk. Do not tell anyone until it is confirmed.

I bought a red cardigan for Meera and a cricket bat for Arun from Karol Bagh. For you, a surprise.

Yours,

Mohan
